

As Part of Holocaust Memorial Day

Justice & Resolving Conflict

Thursday 26th January 2017 10:30-2pm Tower Hamlets Town Hall

Programme

Thank you for coming to today's training conference. We are hoping the Mayor John Biggs will join us during the day, and will have time to talk to you and answer your questions about local democracy. If this happens then we will re-arrange the day, deleting the debate.

10:30            Bingo

10:40            Introduction to the day.

10:45            Children's rights and Korczak
What are the important rights Korczak proposes.

11:15            Circle time and justice
What do children need to solve a conflict?

11:45            Fairtrade break

12:00            Korczak courts
Role play a children's court.

12:30            Lunch [packed lunches]

1pm              Summerhill meetings.
Role play a modern children's court as done by Summerhill School, using Children's BBC drama.

1:30pm          Debate: should culprits be punished?
Small group discussion, then whole conference debate.

2pm              Ends

At the end all teachers will be given teaching resources that allow them to repeat the day's events, further activities based on Korczak, including the powerpoint and video clips used. A powerpoint of the day will be created so that your children can present what they did to their class or school assembly. The pictures will not be used for anything else unless specific permission is given.

The day has been created through voluntary work, and will be overseen by Michael Newman and staff from George Green's School, and will be facilitated by students from George Green's School.
